

Joseph M. Carbone

March 27, 2012

Joseph M. Carbone, 87, currently living in Upper Pittsgrove passed away on March 27, 2012. Born in Corona, NY, he was the son of Frank & Carmela Carbone. He retired from the Sunshine Biscuit Company after forty-four years as a machinist. He was also a loyal member of the Local #50 Bakery, Confectionery & Tobacco Workers Union AFL-CIO serving as Shop Steward, member of the Executive Board as well as serving on the Administration Board. Furthermore, he had served in the U.S. Army during the Second World War. Joe was an avid baseball fan, following both the Yankees and the Mets and he loved to travel down to Virginia to see his family and to go boating. Finally, Mr. Carbone loved to play cards, especially pinochle and rummy.

He is survived by his daughter, Debra Park and her husband Christopher of Upper Pittsgrove and his son, Michael Carbone of Howell, NJ; a brother, Frank Carbone of Old Bridge, a sister Anne Carbone of Long Island and a grand-daughter, Chelsea Carbone. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his wife Jacqueline, a brother Nicholas Carbone and a sister Rose Tamburelli.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, April 4, 2012 at 12 PM at Finn's Point National Cemetery in Pennsville, NJ. Contributions in Joseph's memory can be made to the Mater Dei Nursing Home Resident's Activity Fund 176 Route 40, Newfield, New Jersey 08344
