

Joseph H. Staton Sr.

December 13, 2012

Joseph H. Staton, Sr., 57, of Salem passed away on December 13, 2012. Born in Salem, Joe was the son of Henley Madison Staton & Kathryn (Rafferty) Crusemire. Joe was an all around good guy. He loved his family, took great pleasure in the time he spent with his grandchildren, he put everybody else before himself and he had the remarkable gift of gab. No matter who it was, he would tell you everything about his life, family and what he was thinking. He had several hobbies; he loved cars and working on them, especially Camaro's, collecting trains and baseball. Joe was an avid baseball player growing up and when his kids were of age he began coaching. In fact, he spent many years involved with the Salem Little League. He was also a huge Yankees fan while also convincing his grandchildren to be as well. For many years Joe was self-employed as a mechanic and ran his own shop, Bud's Automotive, in Salem. Finally, he took great pride in serving his country through the U.S. Navy.

He is survived by his wife Janice (nee: Warner), whom he has been married to for thirty-three years but have known each other for thirty-seven; his mother Kathryn; children, Christine Smith and her husband, Scott, Joseph H. Staton, Jr. and Rachel Staton; siblings, Mary Mitchell (Dale) and Arlene DeVault (Charles); grandchildren, Caitlyn Marie Gannon, Scott Joseph Tyler Smith and Cody Lawrence Smith as well as many more family members and friends. In addition to his father and stepfather, Maurice Crusemire, siblings, Bonnie Staton, Michelle McGinnis, Kay Staton and Richard Staton predeceased him.
