

Joseph W. Klaudi

November 10, 2008

Joseph W. Klaudi, 63, of Pittsgrove passed away on November 10, 2008. Born in Camden, Mr. Klaudi was the son of the late Leopold and Julia Klaudi. Prior to moving to Pittsgrove, he had lived in Mt. Ephraim all of his life. Mr. Klaudi graduated from Audubon High School and had retired from U.S. Postal service after 34 years of service. He belonged to the American Postal Service Union and served on the South Jersey Area Local Board. He loved researching history on the family and creating the family tree. Furthermore, he loved being outdoors from fishing, golfing, hunting and gardening to just spending time in the garage.

Mr. Klaudi is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Jean (Nee: Tutelo), his daughters, Jennifer and her husband David Silva of Mickleton and Brenda and her husband Al Cooper of Gloucester City, a son, Joseph Klaudi of Gloucester City, three brothers, Karl of Maple Shade, Lewis of Dividing Creek and Leopold Jr. and his wife Aldine of Millville and five grandchildren, Eric, Alyssa, Zachary, Leo and Luke.

Services will be held on Thursday, November 13, 2008 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The visitation will begin at 10am with the service following at 12pm. Interment will take place at Hillcrest Memorial Park in Pitman.

The family has suggested that donations can be made to the American Cancer Society, 1851 Old Cuthbert Rd., Cherry Hill, NJ 08034 in Mr. Klaudi's memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ Jean,
We are so very sorry to hear of Joe's passing. My memories of Joe are only of him as a child. What a great childhood we all had growing up in Mt. Ephraim.
Please know that our prayers are with you and your family and send a big HUG for comfort.
Love, Carole and Woody###imported-begin##Carole Gildea Doms###imported-end##
