

Josephine Harris

September 24, 2016

Josephine Harris, 95, of Pittsgrove passed away on September 24, 2016. Mrs. Harris was the daughter of the late Charles Sr. & Elizabeth Pelikan. Born and raised in Garfield, she eventually moved to the Elmer area and worked many years as a seamstress for Elmer Manufacturing. Mrs. Harris enjoyed her garden, knitting and crocheting. With extreme patience and care, she would spend many an hour making novelty pins and afghans for the grandchildren. She especially loved traveling in the camper with her husband, where she developed many friendships at the different campsites.

Her daughters, Janet A. Snyder and Catherine A. Deviney, her son and his wife Leslie Jr. and Alice, her brother Robert Pelikan, Sr. as well as eight grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren survive her. In addition to her parents, her husband Leslie J. Harris, Sr., a son Eugene P., son-in-law, Norman Deviney and seven siblings predeceased her.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be said on Friday, September 30, 2016 at St. Mary's R.C. Church, 732 Morton Ave., Rosenhayn, NJ 08352 at 10 AM. The visitation, which will also be held at the church, will begin at 9 AM. Interment will take place at Olivet Cemetery. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ My condolences' to the family and friends of the lovely Mrs. Josephine Harris. While I did not know your loved one long, she left a lasting impression on me with her strength, contagious smile and loving relationship with her family. I am honored that I had a short opportunity to care for her and meet her loved ones during the time she spent in Elmer Hospital!

*Sincerely,
Wanda Alcott*
