

Juan Bautista Valentin

October 25, 2016

Juan Bautista Valentin, age 71 passed away on October 25, 2016. Born in San Sebastian, Puerto Rico, he was the son of the late Juan M. and Genoveva (Serrano) Valentin. Wise, patient and kind-hearted, Juan was a true gentleman. He inspired many with his words of wisdom and actions. He was a firm believer in following your heart and to never stop learning. He loved books and watching Sci-Fi movies. As a competitive athlete, he completed many bicycling and running races, including multiple Century Rides and the NYC Marathon.

He served his country proudly in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War and in the Navy Reserves. Over the years, he held many positions with AT&T, retiring with 25 years from the office in Atlanta, Georgia.

Juan is survived by his daughter, Sandy Krishna (Dave) of Pilesgrove, NJ; his grandchildren, Kristina and David; His sister, Rosa Y. Valentin of Wappingers Falls, NY; his brother, Gregory Valentin of Hopewell Junction, NY; and many nieces and nephews. Along with his parents, he was predeceased by his sister, Marta Huaman Valentin.

A memorial service to celebrate Juan's life will be held on Saturday, October 29, 2016 at 3PM at Sandy and Dave's house, 24 Forsythia Lane, Pilesgrove, NJ 08098. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Juan's memory to the
