“ Another memory of Judy is that I'm going to miss her funny telephone messages she left me. Also, going to miss her staying the nights over her home. I called it "Judy's Hotel". Just spending quality time together and laughing at crazy things. I will always miss that. I remember telling me about her garden and now I will never get to see the redone patio. I am hoping that her family can send me photos of the garden she planted. I will always love and miss her as she was there for me when I needed her.
