

Julie Grace Keen

February 4, 2011

Julie Grace Keen, 21, of Alloway passed away on February 4, 2011. Born in Newark, Del., she was the daughter of John G. Keen Sr. & Cyndy Clarke Keen. She had attended Woodstown High School, where she played tennis, and eventually received her diploma through Salem Community College. She loved playing soccer, playing for many years with the youth league. A member of St. Joseph's R.C. Church in Woodstown, she also attended the youth group at Aldine UMC. For many years, she worked at the family custard stand, Keen's, but most recently Julie had been working for Scopes and Slices in Alloway.

She is survived by her parents, John, Sr. & Cyndy Clarke Keen, siblings, John, Jr., Jordan, Jillian, Jessie, Jared and Jaidan, her grandparents, Samuel F. Clarke of Salem, Richard F. & Mary G. Keen of South Carolina, and Jack & Carolyn Baner of Pennsville, her loving friend, Karada "Max" Williams, as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Her grandmother, Joan Hannagan Clarke predeceased her. A kind-hearted, fun loving, beautiful young woman, Julie loved her family, the many friends she had and life. She will be deeply missed by everyone.

A Memorial Service to celebrate her life will be held on Tuesday, February 8, 2011 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The family will be available starting at 2pm for anyone who wishes to stop by and pay their respects. The Service will be held at 5pm following the visitation. Interment will be private and at the convenience of the family. Condolences can be sent to www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ Cyndy and John- I'm so very sorry for your loss. Cyndy, I worked with your dad when I was a teenager at the Pennsville Acme and always thought he had such lovely family. Our family also suffered the loss of a 16 yr old to a car accident and still struggle to deal with the loss. God Bless all of you as you go through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Dr. Irene C.
