

Julius J. Piccioni

May 19, 2015

Julius J. Piccioni, age 80, of Pittsgrove Township, passed away on Tuesday, May 19, 2015. Born and raised in Philadelphia to the late Julius Caesar Augustus Piccioni and Lucy (nee Primivera) Piccioni, Julius moved to Blackwood in the late 1960's, later moved to Hammonton and spent the last 18 years in Pittsgrove. He was a self-employed auto mechanic and owner of J & J Auto Repair. Julius also served his country as a member of the United States Army during the Korean War. He was an avid hunter and he loved to spend time up at the mobile home that he had in the Endless Mountains of Pennsylvania. But, most of all, Julius truly enjoyed spending time and playing with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his daughters, Roe Love of Pittsgrove and Theresa Bergholz (Walter) of Pittsgrove; his sons, Frank Piccioni (Cheryl) of Pittsgrove, Jay Piccioni of Florida and Joey Piccioni, also of Florida; his grandchildren, Michael, Eva, Stephen, Anthony, Christina, Bub, Amber, Travis, Angelina, Jessica, Joseph, Cherri, Vinny, Casey and Jay; his great grandchildren, Michael, Olivia, Patrick, Bella Rose, Vivian, Cannon, Lilliana, Lexi Rose, Zoey and Theodore; four sisters, Floss, Sandy, Arlene and Roseanne; four brothers, Frankie, Albert, Angelo and Richie; as well as several nieces and nephews. Julius was predeceased by his parents and his beloved wife of almost sixty years, Rosemarie (nee Bruno) Piccioni.

A memorial service to celebrate Julius' life will be held on Monday night, June 8, 2015 at Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318 with a visitation from 5 - 7 PM followed by the service at 7 PM. Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Julius Piccioni, made out to Cindy Chapel, PO Box 155, Canton, PA 17724, in the memo, write "Sunfish Pond Donation." www.adamsfuneralhome.org
