

June D. Carr

September 22, 2012

June D. Carr, 84, currently living in Galloway but formerly of Elmer and Franklinville passed away on September 22, 2012. Born in Vineland, Mrs. Carr was the daughter of Sydney & Sylvia Dyer. She had retired from Elmer Hospital as the secretary to the medical staff. A woman of deep faith and dedicated to her church, she was an active member of the Elmer United Methodist Church as well as the Sunday School Classes. Described as a "good old fashion mom", she was nurturing and caring, loved to cook and bake and spend time with her family. When it came time for the holidays, everyone came home. Her family brought her tons of enjoyment and pleasure. She and her husband, Paul, enjoyed raising their flock of sheep. In fact, they would have the sheep sheared and would spin the wool into yarn to knit clothing. Not only a love but a passion, she knitted lots of clothing, especially sweaters and socks. She also belonged to the Third Star Fibre Guild.

She is survived by her daughter, Linda Babcock of Absecon, three sons, Douglas E. Carll and his wife Bonnie of Pittgrove, Pastor Edward Carll and his wife Gabrielle of Denville, NJ and Donald Carll and his wife Michelle of NC, seven grandchildren, Douglas S. Carll, Lauren Rahey (Ryan), JoAnna Westcott (Bob), Jonathan Babcock, Christopher Carll (Jenna), Zachary and Grace Carll and four great grandchildren. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, L. Paul Carr, grandchildren, Danielle and Lindsay Carll, her brother, Sydney Dyer and a step-son Paul Carr.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. She was such a nice person and was always very kind to me. Linda, I have so many fond memories of when we were growing up and all the time I spent at your house. My mother read it in the paper yesterday and she began to tell me about all the good times she had spent with your mother. We are unable to come to the viewing since we will be away, but all of you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
