

Lane V. Robinson

March 4, 2008

Lane V. Robinson, 83, of Carney's Point passed away on March 4, 2008. Born in Biloxi, Miss., Mrs. Robinson was the daughter of Benjamin and Helen VanHook and was a graduate from Millsap College in Jackson, Miss. Until retiring, Lane had worked for DuPonts for thirty years. She started off in South Carolina working at their Atomic Energy facility. She was then loaned to the State Department and worked in Norway at the NATO Installation for the Peaceful use of Atomic Energy and was eventually transferred to Delaware where she would stay until her retirement. Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Union Presbyterian Church in Carney's Point, she loved to travel, do word games, was considered a fantastic cook. Lane loved to visit and keep-up with her grandchildren and she had many friends that she enjoyed being with.

Everyone and anyone who knew Lane, would describe her as the most caring and gentle Lady. With the warmest heart, infectious smile and being full of life.

She is survived by her husband, George Robinson, a son, Thomas Bailey and his wife Ruby of Texas, a beloved second family, Sheri and David Watts of Carney's Point, Debbie Robinson and David of Florida, George Robinson and his wife Christina of Del., Angelo Spetseris and his wife Dianna of Mass., nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

She was predeceased by her husbands, Arch Papannou and Harold Bailey, a sister Alma Cox and George's son, Phil Robinson.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, March 8, 2008 at 11am at the Union Presbyterian Church, 254 Shell Rd., Carney's Point, NJ 08069. The family will begin to greet relatives and friends starting at 10am. Interment will be private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to the Memorial Fund at the Union Presbyterian Church. www.adamsfuneralhome
