

Laura Belle Boston

February 24, 2013

Laura Belle Boston, 85, of Pittsgrove passed away on February 24, 2013. Mrs. Boston was born in Bridgeton and throughout the years she has worked hard taking care of her family, as a farmer and at the New Jersey Fireworks Factory. Although she had many interests and hobbies, such as, going down to the casinos, canning, cooking, watching old movies, especially westerns and the game show network her one true love, besides her late husband Wilbert, was spending time with her kids, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She never got her fill of them.

Her children, Laura Zampino and her husband Carmen of Pittsgrove, Todd Boston and his wife Jackie of Pittsgrove and Mark Boston and his wife Fay of Elmer, eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren survive her. Her husband Wilbert, a son, Steven and a brother Bill Hanby predeceased her.

Graveside Services will be held on Friday, March 1, 2013 at 10:30 AM at the Union Grove UMC Cemetery, 488 Almond Rd., Pittsgrove, NJ 08318. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
