“ I had only met Laurel a few times thru her boyfriend Jim. Her shy smile was infectious and the conversation was easy! It was rewarding to witness how special one was to the other. Since our running group and friends love Jim we also came to love Laurel and have followed you all through this difficult journey. I will remember Laurel's smile and bright eyes...I hope your memories are many. Laurel's kind spirit will be around you as you grieve and live on.

“ My most treasured memory of Laurel is from summer 2013. A bunch of us went to the Riverview Inn to sit by the water and enjoy the beautiful summer day. Everyone but Laurel and I left. There was a cover band playing inside, and we just danced and danced as if no one else was in the room! When they played Heartache Tonight by the Eagles, FOEGET ABOUT IT, we were getting down like no one's business! I have to say that was the first time I ever actually didn't care who was watching me (I don't have the greatest dance moves) and from that night on, I now dance and every time think about Laurel. Thank you Laurel for that memory, for helping me break out of my dance shame. I love you sweet beautiful butterfly!

“ I will never forget laurel, the memory of her from years past with my daughter and the times I had with her over the years, very sweet girl, she loved her mother and sister, laurel was easy going person very independent, loved the outdoors and of coarse her pet dog, I still can't believe she left us, my only comfort is that laurel is with her father now and he is looking after her and laurel will be spending time with dad now. anthony
