“ Larry always let me help him while working on his house. One day after driving out to pick up some lumber we heard a squeaking under the hood of his car. When we opened the hood a wild kitten jumped out of the fan cover ran across the yard and jumped into a trench we were digging. Took us the next half hour to figure out how to get him out.

Larry never treated me like a kid and taught me many valuable ideas. He was a great friend.
