July 13, 2018

Lawrence E. Stiles, Sr. (A.K.A. Farmer), of L.A.C. Township, age 79, passed away on July 13, 2018 at his residence surrounded by his loving family after a long battle with health issues. He was a dedicated family man. His family always came first. He was born in Seabrook, NJ where he had 3 brothers and 4 sisters. Later the family moved to Lower Alloways Creek Township and started a farming life. After graduating from Salem High School, he worked for GLF and started his own trucking business. After receiving a job opportunity for DuPont Chambers Works he gave up his trucking business and dedicated his life to his career at DuPont's and his growing family. He worked his way up to Supervisor, where he wore many hats; underground pipe fitters, yard gang, welders, track repair and many more. During his time off from DuPont's he worked for Reich Tractor & Trailers spotting trailers at Anchor Hocking. Larry also had his own lawn care business. He retired from DuPont's in 1996 with 30 years of service. He then drove a school bus for B.R. Williams for 13 years until his health started to decline. He also was a lifetime member of the Hancock's Bridge United Methodist Church and a dedicated member of the L.A.C. Ruritans. He enjoyed cutting grass, gardening, going camping with family and friends, spending time with his grand and great grandchildren, and Christmas holidays when all of his family was together.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years Patricia Stiles (WHOM HE CALLED HIS LITTLE FLOWER) and his children, Larry and (Terry) Stiles of Pennsville,

David and (Kathryn) of Lower Alloways Creek, Karen and (David) Hall of Pennsville, Steven and (Lisa) Stiles of Lower Alloways Creek, grandchildren David Jr. and Kimberley Stiles (fiancé Ralph Acevedo), Krystal Hall, Jake and Luke Stiles, and 2 great grandchildren Kurt Wayne Stiles and Ella Nicole Acevedo. He is also survived by his brother Donald Stiles and sister Peggy Renzi. He is predeceased by his parents George and Dorothy Stiles, twin sister Loretta Lark, June Rankin, Dorothy Nestor, and by his brother George Stiles.

The Stiles Family would like to extend a very special "Thank You" to Bayada Hospice and Christiana Care for all your care and support!
