

Lee Elwell

December 23, 2011

Lee Elwell, 67, of Pittsgrove passed away December 23, 2011. Born in Elmer NJ, he was the loving son of Harris and Phoebe B. Elwell. After High School he went on to work for DuPont Chamber Works where he retired. He was currently working for the South Jersey Auto Parts, in Vineland.

He is survived by his father Harris Elwell of Pittsgrove, his son Kevin Elwell from Florida, Helene (Kevin's mother) and her husband Edward of PA. He was predeceased by his mother, Phoebe.

His passion for speed and free spirit kept him doing what he loved most; listening to country music, racing motorcycles and stock cars, which he built as well. In spite of this, nothing was ever more important than the loving and caring for his beloved father and son.

“ Sorry to hear about Lee. He was just on our November breakfast ride and in our group photo at the East Point Lighthouse. May he rest in peace and enjoy good riding weather forever! Bernadette Ford (former secretary of the Salem County Harley Davidson Riders)
