“ Lew was in my class at PGHS class of 1968. Several years later, my Dad went to Merion Gardens to live. I was surprised to see that Lew was the Chief Maintenance person there. He always checked in on my Dad to make sure he was doing ok. He helped my Dad move from one room to another, and made sure everything was going well. My Dad had a Grandfather's clock he brought home from World War II Germany, and Lew made sure it got moved without a scratch on it! He was a very caring individual, and I wish him peace.
