

Lillian Bostwick

November 30, 2014

On November 30, 2014, Lillian Bostwick of Hurlock, MD and formerly of Elmer, NJ went home to be with her Lord and Savior. Mrs. Bostwick was born on December 16, 1932 in Bridgeton, NJ to Wilmer John & Florence Black. She attended Bridgeton High School, graduating in 1950.

Lillian lived in Elmer from 1951 to 2014, when she went to live with her children, Garrie and Debbie Bostwick. She worked for many years as a medical assistant, working for Dr. Mazer and Read in Bridgeton and Elmer before retiring. Mrs. Bostwick was a member of the Elmer Presbyterian Church where she was an ordained Deacon.

A stroke survivor since 2001, in spite of being disabled she was able to keep busy with many activities. She loved living by the lake in Elmer while feeding and observing the wildlife around her. She was a member of the Garden State Christian Women's Connection, serving on the planning team for many years. In addition, she guided a Friendship Bible Coffee study group in her home, loved to do counted cross-stitch to give as gifts and always had a project going.

She was predeceased by her beloved husband of 53 years, Elbridge Bostwick, her parents, and brothers, Edward R. Black and Wilmer F. Black.

She is survived by her children, Donna and Gary Dugan of Pittsgrove, and Garrie and Debbie Bostwick of Hurlock, MD; grandchildren, Brian and Katie Wiltsey of Sugar Hill, GA, Brent Wiltsey of Elmer, NJ, Brandon Dugan of Pittsgrove, Chris and Amber Bostwick of Delmar, DE and Dan and Jennifer Bostwick of Seaford, DE as well as two beloved great grandchildren, Brooke Emerson Wiltsey and Grace Elizabeth Bostwick.

A Celebration of her life will be held on Thursday, December 4, 2014 at the Elmer Presbyterian Church, 107 Chestnut St., Elmer, NJ 08318 at 11 AM. The family will be available starting at 10:30 AM to greet anyone who wishes to stop by and pay their respects. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that one would consider sending donations to the Elmer Presbyterian Church Memorial Fund. Burial is at the convenience of the family. www.adamsfunralhome.org

“ Dear Lillian’s Family, I am so sorry for your loss and wanted to express my condolences. It is so difficult to live with the empty void that’s left when our loved ones die, our heavenly father promises to give you the strength to live each day and he says “I have heard your prayers, I have seen your tears, I will heal you – 2 Kings 20:5. May the “God of all comfort” be with your family and may your cherish memories of your Mother be a healing force of strength for your family to draw on; lean on your loves ones and our heavenly Father’s ability to strengthen you during the days ahead.

With deepest sympathy I share your sorrow,

Cheryl - December 02, 2014 at 12:50 PM
