

Lillian C. Werner

January 14, 1936 - July 27, 2006

Lillian C. Werner, 70, formerly of Franklinville and now residing in Pittsgrove died in July 27, 2006 at the Elmer Hospital. The daughter of Irvin and Alverna Miller, Mrs. Werner was a busdriver for many years with the Washington Township School System and Transport of New Jersey. She enjoyed playing cards and being outdoors but most important to her was the time she spent with her family and friends. She is survived by her daughters, Joann Riley and her husband Kevin of Turnersville, Alverna Sinex of Cape May and Doris Lloyd and her husband Michael of Millville; her son, Franklin Miller of Pittsgrove; her sisters, Sara Garvin, Betty Reppert and Linda Walker and her brothers, Charles and LeRoy Miller as well as her grandchildren, Rhiannon, Kristen and Mason Riley, Thomas and Samuel Sinex and Michael II, Samantha and Danielle Lloyd. She was predeceased by her husband Frank, a grandson, Kevin, Jr., and her brothers, Morris and Franklin Miller and sisters, Eleanor Wesco tt and Dorothy Bowling. A Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, August 1, 2006 at 7:30pm at the Adams Funeral Home, 111, S. Main St., Elmer. The family will begin to greet friends and relatives starting at 6:30pm. In lieu of flowers the family has asked that donations be made in care of the Adams Funeral Home, P.O. 881, Elmer, NJ 08318. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Mommy, I miss you so much! Everyone has turned away from me but I know if you were here I would still have a friend and someone who would be there for me. I love you mommy and miss you so very much

Allie Sinex - August 09, 2022 at 06:17 PM

JR

No one turned away from you. You drove them away. Don't blame anyone but yourself for the things you have done.

Joanne Riley - March 18, 2025 at 11:32 AM