

Lillian Hopkins

February 10, 2021

It is with great sadness that the family of Lillian O. Hopkins announces her passing on February 10, 2021. Lillian was born in North Carolina to her parents Riley and Caldonia McGaha. Later in life she resided in Upper Pittsgrove, NJ.

Lillian was predeceased by her husband Lester and a son Robert (Bobby). Left to mourn her passing are her children, Sharlene (Chick) Taylor, Linda (Robert) Mangene, Edwin Hopkins, Anita (David) Johnson and Catherine Hopkins; seven grandchildren and nine great grand children, a brother, Estle, and a few nieces and nephews. Special nieces, Elaine Taylor, Mary Sanderson and a nephew Will White were very close to her and her special friends Carl and Valerie.

Lillian spent much of her time enjoying her flowers and gardening. Her family enjoyed all the special dinners and desserts that she prepared for them.

She loved the Great Smoky Mountains as much of her life was spent there and recently spoke of wanting to visit them again.

Services were held on Saturday, February 13, 2021 and her interment took place at the Chestnut Grove Cemetary, Elmer, NJ. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
