

Linda Jean Coleman

September 17, 2023

Linda Jean Coleman (78) of Pittsgrove passed away on September 17, 2023 after an extended illness. Born on December 6, 1944 in Woodbury to the late Edward J. & Betty (Hayes) Harper. She grew up in Gibbsboro and graduated from Haddonfield Memorial High School in 1963. In 1973 she moved to Pittsgrove, where she remained a lifelong resident. In her early years she was a full-time mom while working part time for Archetto Construction and the Law office of Edward F. Duffy. She eventually became the Tax Assessor's Clerk for the Township of Pittsgrove and remained there until her retirement in 2007. Linda was a fierce Philadelphia sports fan, especially her Eagles in which she was a season ticket holder for many years. Her favorite color was purple and even drove a purple car. She loved history, shopping, animals, and fed anything that would come to her back doorstep. She was extremely patriotic and always flew her American flags proudly. Linda devoted her life to her children and in the later years her grandchildren's activities kept her busy. She attended Baseball, Dance, Field Hockey, Football, Softball, Swimming, and Wrestling events year-round, all while wearing her purple boots. Linda was a member of the Union Grove Methodist Church and the Eastern Star.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her brother Edward C. (Skeeter) Harper, brother George R. (Rick) Harper, and brother-in-law Thomas Egan. She is survived by her sister Pamela Egan; daughter: Stephanie Costanzo (Dino); son: George Coleman V (Marsha); grandchildren:

George Coleman VI, Paige Coleman, Angelo Costanzo, and Sophia Costanzo; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and her loyal four-legged companion, Yogi.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be sent to either the SJ Regional Animal Shelter 1244 N. Delsea Drive Vineland, NJ 08360 or Mission Teens, 102 Eppinger Ave., Pittsgrove, NJ 08318.
