

Lorraine Marie Wilson

January 3, 2021

Lorraine Marie Wilson, age 84, living in Elmer, NJ for the past four years, passed away on January 3, 2021. Born at the Germantown Hospital in Philadelphia, PA to the late Charles and Esther (McLaughlin) Stein, Lorraine was a graduate of Germantown High School. She spent most of her early years taking care of and raising her family in Philadelphia with her husband George J. Wilson, Jr. After the kids were grown she worked as a secretary at the Duplicating Center at Temple University until the two of them retired. George and Lorraine then moved to Lewes, DE, traveling and just enjoying life and retirement for 33 years. She was a master gardener and a wood crafter and she loved to make wooden garden ornaments.

Lorraine is survived by her children Marion McNulty (Thomas), George V. Wilson (Nancy) and Stephen Wilson (Delia); her daughter in law Terry Wilson; her grandchildren Marion, Tesse Mae, Chelsea, Kim, Stephanie, Jamie, Thomas, Stephen and Tommy; her great grandchildren Jack, Grady, Corrine, Madison, Luke and one on the way; four siblings; and many nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband of 63 years George J. Wilson, Jr.; her son James Wilson; and eight siblings.

Lorraine will be privately laid to rest next to her husband at the Salem County Veterans Cemetery in Pilesgrove, NJ.

Cemetery Details

Salem County Veterans

125 Cemetery Rd.
Mannington, NJ