

Lucy G. Harris

September 9, 2025

Lucy G. Harris of Pennsville, NJ, a devoted wife, loving mother, and proud Grammie, entered her heavenly home on Tuesday, September 9, 2025. She was 87 years old. Surrounded by the gentle care of her family, she passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love that will continue to live on in the hearts she touched. Born to Donald and Caroline Gray on March 25, 1938, Lucy was raised in Milton, Wisconsin, alongside her three sisters: Donna, Nola, and Marietta. Their home was always filled with the joy of music, and Lucy loved to sing and play both the piano and clarinet. After high school, she attended Salem College in West Virginia, where she met the love of her life, John L. Harris. They were married on April 5, 1958, in Lost Creek, West Virginia, and embarked on a beautiful life together. They moved to New Jersey, eventually settling in Pennsville to raise their three children. Lucy was a caregiver at heart. She dedicated her life to raising her own children while also opening her heart and home to care for the children of other working parents. Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her home and into the community when she began working at Pine Brook Bookstore in Pennsville. There, she served many people and churches in Salem County and beyond, building a reputation for her kind and gracious nature. She was dedicated to her many customers until her retirement. Together, Lucy and John created a home filled with love and laughter. They prioritized family, traveling, and camping often to create cherished memories. Their adventures continued throughout their lives, as they traveled extensively across the United States and explored many countries and continents. A woman of deep faith and unconditional love, Lucy was the true heart of her home. Her strength and quiet fortitude were unmatched, and she was always present to guide her family through every celebration and challenge. She prayed incessantly for others and supported those around her with a sweet and gentle spirit that embraced everyone she knew. Lucy was a member of Sharptown Church. Her confidence was in Jesus, her Savior, who was her hope for eternal life in heaven.

Lucy is survived by her loving husband of 67 years, John L. Harris; her children, Valerie, Lori (Mike), and John (Shawn); her grandchildren, Jennifer, Ruthann (Mark), Julie (John), Lauren, Michael (Christina), and Lizz (Ryan); and 16 great-grandchildren.

Services to honor Lucy's life and legacy will include a visitation at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ, on Tuesday, September 16, 2025, at 10 a.m., followed by a service at 11 a.m. The burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you consider a donation to Ranch Hope, PO Box 325, Alloway, NJ, 08001 in memory of Lucy. This ministry provides Christ-centered services to youth and families.

Cemetery Details

Private Interment

Previous Events

Visitation

SEP 16. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Adams Funeral Home
64 Broad St.
Woodstown, NJ 08098
adamsfuneralhome@comcast.net

Service

SEP 16. 11:00 AM (ET)

Adams Funeral Home
64 Broad St.
Woodstown, NJ 08098
adamsfuneralhome@comcast.net

Tribute Wall

“ Carol Molinari Monks lit a candle in memory of Lucy Harris

Carol Molinari Monks - September 15, 2025 at 03:08 PM

RB

“ Oh Val, I'm so sorry for your loss. Hugs, my friend. Your family will be in my prayers as you walk through this valley.

Roberta Berger - September 12, 2025 at 12:05 PM

DK

Lori, my friend, and all those who treasured Lucy—my sincere condolences. What a glowing tribute to your dear Mother. May the wonderful memories bring you many smiles as time goes on. My prayers are with you. Love, Denise

Denise Keys - September 12, 2025 at 04:32 PM