

Lucy Ward

April 28, 2020

Lucy Ward was born on July 6, 1930 and passed away on April 28, 2020. She was a resident of Sewell, New Jersey at the time of her passing. She was widowed by her husband, Roland Fewell. Lucy later remarried and was preceded in death by her husband, Howard Ward.

She spent her early childhood years on her family's farm in Virginia. Lucy and her siblings helped their widowed mother work the farm. They also helped her make and sell her pies that were famous locally.

She enjoyed her "nutty candy bars", poring through every magazine she could get her hands on and Pepsi (but not Coke). It was Pepsi or no cola at all.

Lucy was a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She is survived by her children; Roland Fewell, Crystal Toth, Victoria Briggs and Dayle Ward. Lucy's two sons; James Fewell and Keith Ward preceded her in death. She was also the grandmother of Rachel Fewell, Nicholas Fewell, Jessica Briggs Sommerkamp, Christopher Briggs, Stephen Briggs, Joseph Grenvicz, Olivia Grenvicz, Ian Young, Samantha Young, Melanie Fewell, Adam Fewell, Ryan Fewell, Michelle Ward Wigglesworth and Rick Ward. Lucy's surviving sibling, her sister Ruth Colb, resides in Arkansas.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.