

Margaret E. Morrison

December 27, 2025

Margaret E. “Maggie” Morrison

Margaret E. Morrison (Maggie) (née Parks), affectionately known as Mom Mom and Me Mom, passed away at the age of 82, leaving behind a family whose lives were made brighter by her laughter and love.

Born on May 14, 1943, and a longtime resident of Pennsville, New Jersey, Maggie had a personality that filled every room she entered. Her laugh was legendary, contagious, and completely impossible to ignore.

Christmas was Maggie’s favorite holiday, and each year the family eagerly awaited her latest purchase of a new dancing Santa, which somehow managed to be louder, flashier, and more entertaining than the one before it. Cooking was her true superpower. Nothing came out of a box, ever. Everything was made from scratch, and her meals were events, planned around, anticipated, and talked about long after the plates were cleared.

Sundays were reserved for one thing: football. You could always count on hearing “Fly, Eagles, Fly.” No car ride was complete without saying “On the Road Again.” Late nights often found her happily planted in front of the TV watching The Golden Girls.

Alongside her beloved husband, Joe "Buddy," Maggie poured her heart into Dad's Produce and Mom's Crafts, a family business they were immensely proud of, and one that reflected the care and dedication Maggie brought to everything she did.

Her love was fierce, sometimes delivered with a playful pluck to the forehead, but always unmistakable.

For the past 10 years, her daughter Tanya lovingly cared for her, ensuring her days were filled with companionship, laughs, and love.

She is survived by her daughters Tammie DeMichele (Miller), Tanya Miller, Sonya Porch (Alan) and Josette Clark; her brothers Albert Parks, Ralph Parks (Shelley), and Larry Parks; her grandchildren Brittany and Vince DeMichele, Alex, Jeffrey, Jessica, and Autumn; and her great-grandchild Parker DeMichele.

Maggie was preceded in death by her husband Joseph J. Morrison III; her son Richie Miller; her mother Elizabeth S. Maurer; her father Albert J. Parks; her brother Jack Parks; her sisters-in-law Barbara Parks, Terry Parks, and Alice Parks.

A service to honor Maggie's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Heart Association or a charity of your choice in her honor.

Maggie leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, home-cooked meals, Christmas joy, and memories that will be shared and laughed over for generations to come. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered, especially every Christmas, every Sunday football game, and every time someone hears "On the Road Again."