

Margaret Peggy Dougherty

July 6, 2010

Margaret "Peggy" Dougherty, 83, of Elmer passed away on July 6, 2010. Born in Millville, she was the daughter of Paul A. & Anna Dougherty. Peg had been a long time resident of Elmer living on Main St. for many years. She graduated from Sacred Heart in Millville in 1945 and then pursued a nursing degree. Although she became a nurse, she eventually worked in medical records at both Elmer and then Salem Community Hospitals. After retiring, during tax season she would help out at Newkik's in Elmer and for the past eight years she has been a main stay at the Talk of The Town Coffee Shop in Elmer.

She is survived by her brother Edward Dougherty in Pittsgrove, her nephew Kevin, good friends, Myra Smith and Linda Herrmann, her coffee shop family and many other family members and friends. She was predeceased by a brother Paul J. Dougherty.

Graveside service were held at Peg's wishes and were private. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
