

Maria Teresa Castro

December 14, 2010

Maria Teresa Castro was called home to the Lord December 14, 2010. Born in Costa Rica, she came to the U.S. at age 27, initially settling in Los Angeles, California, where she worked as a baby sitter and caregiver for the elderly.

She was a lover of nature, and an avid gardener and knitter. She will be remembered for her kind heart, indomitable spirit, her unapologetic honesty and her trust in the Lord.

Maria Teresa's favorite times were spent with her family and gardening.

She was predeceased by her parents Bertin Castro and Beatriz Otarola, her ex-husband Enrique Abeledo; her brothers Francisco, Ricardo, Carlos and Jose Maria; and a sister Auxiliadora.

Left behind to honor her memory are her only daughter Emily Abeledo-Adams and son-in-law Marc

Adams, her grandchildren Ethan and Emma; her sisters Marina, Virginia, and Carmen, and brothers Valerio, and Adrian; a multitude of nieces and nephews who cherish her dearly; and near-to-her-heart close friends. A private celebration of her life will be held in Elmer on December 16, 2010. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Upper Pittsgrove. The family would like to thank the staff of the Adult Medical Day Care where she attended three times per week and to caregivers Jimena Espinoza and Rocio Tenorio, who accompanied her in her journey.
