

Marie Weber Hogan

August 19, 2022

Marie Weber Hogan, age 86, a longtime resident of Woodstown, NJ passed away on August 19, 2022. Born in Wilmington, DE to the late Eugene Weber, Sr. and Mary (Green) Weber, Marie grew up in Marshallton, DE and was a 1954 graduate of Conrad High School in Wilmington. In 1969, she moved to the Woodstown area. Marie started out working as a secretary and stenographer for DuPont's where she met her first husband, William Coleman, Sr., and the two were married in February of 1958. In the 1970's, she began a career in real estate and, in the 1980's, Marie and William formed their Century 21 Real Estate office. After selling the business, she continued to sell real estate until retiring. Marie was also a devoted member of the Woodstown Presbyterian Church where she served as a Deacon.

Marie is survived by her sons William Coleman, Jr. and Michael Coleman, PhD (Constance); her grandchildren Maria, Alexis, Brittany (Rob), Meghan (Mark), Noel, Heidi and Isaiah Coleman; her sister Mary Buschard; and her brothers Ray and Bobby Weber. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband of 25 years, Richard T. Hogan, her daughter Kathleen Coleman, Esq., and her brother Eugene Weber, Jr.

Services will be held on Saturday, August 27, 2022 at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation starting at 10 AM leading to the funeral service at 11 AM. Interment will follow at Lawnside Cemetery in Woodstown.

“ *To Marie's family,
So sad, but am sure you have a lot of good memories of Marie. We golfed in leagues together and always had fun.
May her memory be eternal.*

*Sincerely,
Liz Pappas, PV*
