“ Dear Mr. Iles, Ashely, Josh, her family, colleagues, and friends. Your Daughter, and Mom is well known for how sincerely sweet, kind, and nurturing she is. I'm grateful to have a few, decades ago Christmas memories, and I've only just heard the difficult news from someone who let me know that they had the joy of working with her in the past, and sends their condolences as well. They were adamant that you know how appreciated her genuine kindness is, and how so many, especially her students, staff, extended family and friends alike love her. We send our love to you cousins.. K and Temu.

“ So sorry for your loss. Diane was always so much fun to be around growing up. Our grandmothers always found ways to keep us “girls” especially together. Besides swimming at Rich Crow lake later just Richies Lake, they would take us up to Philadelphia at Christmas to shop. Since they grew up in Philadelphia they knew their way around. We would catch the bus at Moods corner on RT. 77 and Swedsboro-Franklinville Rd. Diane was always saying something to make us laugh. I remember sleep overs that we wanted Diane to stay but she never would. Mostly Sherri and Debbie would stay. Aunt Margaret would walk the girls up from her house to swim or just hang out and visit. So thankful they did this for us. It felt like we were as close to being sisters not just cousins. Sorry we won't be able to attend Diane's funeral but just know we are praying for you all send our love. Delores Olbrich Vanlier

“ Ashley and Josh, I was saddened to hear of your mom's passing. She was one of a kind! So many great treasured memories! She was my right hand in my classroom and helped my students along their journey. She would work with the most challenging students with her special touch and understanding. All of the students at Upper Pittsgrove knew "Mrs. Kramme". It was a joy to see her helping with homework or playing games in the afterschool program providing a safe environment. She was our angel at Upper Pittsgrove and has a special place in reserved Heaven. Sending lots of love, hugs and prayers your way
