

Mary Norcross

June 17, 2019

Mary Norcross, 84, currently of Williamstown and formerly of Franklinville, passed away on June 17, 2019. Mary was born in New Bedford, MA, to the late Joseph Louis and Iona (Wagner) Neron. She was a 1953 graduate of Clayton High School and, aside from being a homemaker and raising her five children, she spent several years working at Columbia Records in Pitman and at the Homewood Retirement Center in Martinsburg, PA. Mary was a member of the Open Bible Baptist Church in Williamstown.

Mary loved doing crafts and cooking, as she had an enormous amount of cookbooks. She enjoyed gardening, going to the Philadelphia Flower Show every year and going to the Mummer's Parade whenever she could. But mostly, Mary will be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother who loved the time that she spent with her family, especially her great grandkids.

Mary is survived by her children Patty White of Summerville, SC, Larry Timberman, Jr. (Louise Indyg) of Pomona, Anita Ham (Phillip) of Pittsgrove and Robert Timberman (Lisa) of Mount Pleasant, SC; her grandchildren Brian, Janet, Jason, Christina, Gabrielle, Robbie, Izzy, Ryan, Jordan, Matthew and Marielle; her great grandchildren Alyssa, Lauren, Destiny, Cheyenne, Rachel, Abbie, Nicholas, Caitlyn and Emerson; her great great grandson Rhett; her great nephew Darrell Neron (Mildred); and her great nieces Natalie and Nichole. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband George Norcross, her daughter Mary "Ginny" Fleming, three grandchildren and her two brothers.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.
