

Mary M. Shriver

September 2, 2019

Mary Madeline Shriver (Ferrari), 77, of Pilesgrove passed peacefully Monday, September 2, 2019 in Cooper Hospital surrounded by family. Predeceased by her father Frank L. Ferrari and mother Madeline "Madge" Farmer, Mary was born in Chester, Pennsylvania on July 22, 1942.

She moved overseas to Europe, as her father was in the military. When Mary was a little girl she attended grammar school in France, Italy and Switzerland. At the age of 14 she returned home to Delaware County where she attended Notre Dame High School for girls. In 1961 she married James Shriver and raised two sons Joseph and James. Mary had four grandchildren Amy, Ashley, Victoria and Jimmy; along with three great grandchildren.

Mary loved planting flowers and making pine cone wreaths. She belonged to VMCCA (Vintage Motor Car Club of America) and the BACKROADCRUISERS of South Jersey and toured the east coast with James in their antique cars. Mary was the type of person that would help anyone. She will be surely missed.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.
