

Mary Ann Taylor

October 7, 2024

Mary Ann Bundy Taylor was born in Essex County VA, on October 14, 1935, to the late Etta and Lonnie Bundy Sr.

Mary Ann eventually left Virginia, traveled around the world and then settled in Penns Grove, New Jersey. She worked as a cook at the Deepwater Diner and later served as the Supervisor on Site for the Don-Lee Margin Corporation at Dupont until she retired.

Mary Ann was always a believer in God. During her early years, she was a devout Catholic. Later, she attended Shiloh Baptist Church in Penns Grove, NJ, where she served as an Usher and was a member of the Golden Agers senior group for over 30 years. She was known there for her cooking, especially her spaghetti.

She was joined in Holy Matrimony to James R. Taylor on July 11, 1997, at which time she converted to the Baptist faith. She became an active member of Morning Star Baptist Church, Woodstown; at some point serving as the secretary of the Choir and the treasurer.

Mary Ann loved cooking, flowers and laughing. She loved her brothers and sisters, her nieces and nephews, all children, her friends and extended family, and she loved pets. She loved to help others, and she loved the Lord. She would help anyone in need in any way she could. She loved and was loved. She will be missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Etta and Lonnie Bundy Sr, her sisters: Kate Smith and Adeline Nickens, her brother, Lonnie Bundy Jr. and her beloved dog, Rosie. To mourn her passing, she leaves behind her husband, Reverend James R. Taylor, Pennsville NJ; her brother, Daniel Bundy, Las Vegas NV.; her sisters: Jennie E. Holmes, Penns Grove NJ.; Jean B. Pugh, West Point VA, and Lola Rullo (John Sr.), Penns Grove NJ; her nieces and nephews: Jewel Bundy Moses, Ursula Wilson, Randolph Holmes, Larry Holmes, Anthony Holmes, Edwin Holmes, E. Yvonne Pugh Hughes (Andrew), John D. Rullo Jr. (Pamela), Dominic A. Rullo (Joan), and Toni Rullo Moore (Wayne). Her niece by blood but "daughter by love", Jacqueline Pugh Dixon (Ronald), her faithful friend, Ms. Beatrice Moone, her "boy", whom she loved like a grandson, George Lucas Kokelidis; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends too numerous to list.

Services will be held on Tuesday, October 15, 2024 at Morning Star Baptist Church, 410 Eldridges Hill Road, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation starting at 10 AM leading to the funeral service at 11 AM. Interment will follow the service at the Salem County Veterans Cemetery in Pilesgrove, NJ. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Mary Ann's memory to the Morning Star Baptist Church.

www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Cemetery Details

Salem County Veterans

125 Cemetery Rd.
Mannington, NJ

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 15. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Morning Star Baptist Church
410 Eldridges Hill Road
Woodstown, NJ 08098

Service

OCT 15. 11:00 AM (ET)

Morning Star Baptist Church
410 Eldridges Hill Road
Woodstown, NJ 08098

Tribute Wall

RP

“ *My condolences to Mary Ann's family and friends. May God hold you in the palm of his hand.
Mary Ann always brightened my day when she came in my office at DuPont. We sorely missed her when she retired.
I also worked with Jim (T-bone) at DuPont and send my deepest heartfelt condolences to him.
I will always remember her smile, laugh and strong work ethic.*

Rich Perry

Richard J. Perry - October 15, 2024 at 01:32 PM

JD

“ To the first woman to show me unconditional love. I knew this day had to come and though my heart is broken, I know that you are at peace. Our lives were enriched because you were in it. Thank you for always loving me. I know real love because of you.

your daughter by love-

Jackie

Jacqueline P Dixon - October 11, 2024 at 01:27 PM