

Mary Sue Woody

November 29, 2020

Mary Sue Woody was born February 15th, 1957 in Elmer N.J. to Betty M. Woody (Loveland) and Edmond K. Woody. Mary was the second of nine children and the oldest daughter. Mary was preceded in death by her mother Betty Woody, her father Edmond Woody, brother Gary W. Woody, brother David K. Woody and sister Karen M. Woody.

Mary was a graduate of Bridgeton High School in 1975. She worked at Appel Farm through her teen years where she met Ishmayl Robinson with whom she would later have two children, Wayne and Tara. Mary was always passionate and driven to help others which led her to a life of working in medicine. She began working for Dr. Ianucci early on in her career. She was compelled to return to school and become an LPN and she did. Mary graduated from CCTech in 1992. She began working for Cumberland Manor where she remained for 22 years. Mary would later take a job with Bayada Nurses where she remained until she became ill.

Mary loved gardening in her free time, when she wasn't enjoying a quick trip to the Casinos. Mary also loved cats and almost always had one in her home. She was most fond of Mittens and Killer. She was also known for being an awesome baker and a fabulous seamstress. She loved children, didn't matter who they were, but she had a special place in her heart for each of her grandsons!

Mary leaves to cherish her memory, brother Edmund Woody Jr (Melanie), sister Terry Groover (Perry), sister Barbara Figlio (Nathan), sister Beth Woolvin (John), brother Brian Woody, son Ishmayl W. Robinson, daughter Tara E. Robinson, their father Ishmayl Robinson, her grandsons Joseph T, Hank S., Jimmy Lee S., Dyami J., Azi A., Ciale A. Her beloved Richard Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews and extended family.
