

Matilda M. Harz

November 13, 2005

Matilda Marie Harz, 94, of Elmer passed away on November 13, 2005 at the Rainbow Nursing Home in Pittsgrove. Matilda was born in Monroeville, NJ to Anna and George Franzen on September 8, 1911. She has resided in both the Elmer and Camden area for years and had worked as a seamstress for many years. Her hobbies were reading, sewing clothing, cross-stitch, embroidery and croqueting many afghans for family and friends. Matilda was a volunteer for the Deborah Hospital organizing bazaars and making items for patients and the bazaars. She retired to Mims, Florida for several years where she was active in the Mims United Methodist Church and enjoyed her time there in the warm weather. She is survived by her son, Fred Harz, Jr. and his wife Joan of Elmer, with whom she lived with for the past five years, her daughter Anita (Harz) Perry and her husband Edmond of Wildwood, Fla., her grandson Eric Harz and his wife Michelle of Elmer, a granddaughter Valerie (Harz) Lazowski and her husband Ted of Ocean View, NJ and her granddaughter Dawn (Perry) Bishop and her husband Kenneth of Albania, Europe as well as eight great grandchildren, Adam Harz, Erica Harz, Ashley Harz, Neal Harz, Thaddeus Lazowski, Eva Bishop, Joshua Bishop and Stephen Bishop. She was predeceased by her former husband Fred Harz. A viewing for Mrs. Harz will be held Wednesday night, November 16, 2005 from 7-9pm at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer and again Thursday morning starting at 10am. The Service will follow the viewing Thursday morning at 11am at the funeral home with interment at Chestnut

Grove Cemetery in Elmer. The family has requested that memorial contributions be made in Matilda's memory to the Elmer United Methodist Church where she was a lifetime and oldest living member. www.AdamsFuneralHome.org