

Melissa Anne Eckley

August 27, 2020

Melissa Anne Rowe-Eckley of Pennsville, NJ has passed away on Thursday August 27, 2020.

She was born to the late Kathleen Lowid and her surviving husband Joseph Lowid .

Melissa was born and raised in Pennsville where she was a student at Pennsville Memorial High School and then attended Salem Community College where she became a Certified Nursing Assistant because she enjoyed taking care of people.

Melissa had a tender heart and loved her family. She enjoyed camping down at the shore and spending time with friends and family.

Melissa is survived by her father Joe Lowid and sister Elena Lowid-Ottinger, niece Brianna and nephew Hayden Ottinger.

She leaves behind her twin sons Matthew and Michael Eckley whom she loved dearly along with her beautiful grandchildren MJ, Kaylee, Jaiden, Kathleen, Auria and Lewis and was lovingly named YaYa by, whom she adored with her whole heart.

We will be having a celebration of Melissa's life at Riverview Beach Park on September 3, 2020 at 5:30 PM near the band stand. Please remember to wear a mask and stay safe.
