

Mervin E Lemke

February 15, 2013

Mervin E. Lemke, 83, born in Berlin but raised and residing in Pedricktown, passed away peacefully in the home that he built on February 15, 2013. The son of the late William and Elizabeth Lemke, Mervin left high school during his senior year to go to work at Dupont's from which he would retire in 1980. He was a member and past trustee of the First Baptist Church of Pedricktown, spent three years on the Oldmans Township Committee, and was an assistant leader for the Boy Scouts. During his "off" time, Mervin loved to just be outside and take care of his lawn and yard.

He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Gail Lemke; his daughter, Robin Oliver and her husband Keith of Pedricktown; his sons, Bruce Lemke and his wife Pam, and Dan Lemke all of Pedricktown and Brian Lemke of Tranner, PA; his grandchildren, Rachelle Bottenberg, Stephen Lemke, Rachel Oliver, Amanda Hyatt and her husband Scott, Billy Lemke, and Zack Lemke; his niece, Bonnie Lemke and his nephew, Doug Lemke. Along with his parents, Mervin was predeceased by his brothers, Richard and Dave Lemke. Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.
