His love of sports extended beyond watching; he was also a dedicated player, especially in baseball, where he played throughout the Elmer Little League. Michael was also a fan of 90's rock music, following bands like Rush, Creed, and Three Doors Down. A familiar sight to those who knew him, Michael could always be seen wearing one of his favorite hats, whether he was heading out or just relaxing at home.

Michael was predeceased by his grandparents, Dorthea Ciccio and John McClintock; his brother-in-law, David Carlaw; and two uncles, John

McClintock and David Marvel.
