

Michele Ann Warner

July 29, 1972 - December 12, 2024

Michele Ann Warner, 52, of Monroe County, passed away peacefully on December 12, 2024. Born on July 29, 1972, in Elmer, New Jersey, she was the beloved youngest daughter of Kenneth and Louise Patrick. Michele will be remembered as a devoted wife, a compassionate caregiver, and a woman of unwavering faith. Her life was defined by kindness, love, and an enduring spirit that touched everyone she met.

Michele's faith was the cornerstone of her life. On July 30, 2023, she was baptized at Calvary Chapel, a moment that solidified her deep commitment to walking in God's light. Her faith guided her through life's triumphs and challenges, inspiring the love and care she so generously shared with others. This devotion was evident in her work as a hospice administrator, where she brought comfort and dignity to countless lives. A dedicated professional, Michele held an Associate's in Applied Science and Nursing and was a passionate advocate for her patients' well-being.

Her love of life extended beyond her career. Michele and her husband, Barry, shared a beautiful marriage filled with adventure and joy. Married in Jamaica, the couple explored the world together, creating cherished memories in tropical paradises like Tulum, Mexico, and Maui. Makena Beach in Maui held a special place in Michele's heart, its beauty and tranquility brought her peace and wonder. At home, Michele's love for her family extended to her cherished pets. Their companionship brought her boundless comfort and joy.

Michele's zest for life shone through her passions, especially her love for Christmas and football. To her, Christmas was not just a season but a year-round celebration. Whether listening to Christmas carols, watching National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation, or spreading holiday cheer, Michele found happiness in the magic of the season. As a devoted Dallas Cowboys fan and enthusiastic follower of college football especially teams coached by Deion Sanders she cheered with excitement, always sharing her love for the game.

Michele leaves behind a loving family who will carry her memory in their hearts forever. She is survived by her devoted husband Barry; her mother Louise; her siblings Myrle (Dolores), Luke, Gary (Sharon), Diane and Denise; her mother-in-law Nancy; her sister-in-law Pam; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends. Michele's love and warmth will also be remembered by her cherished pets Lilly, Nanuq, Stella and Johnny. She is reunited in peace with her father, Kenneth, and her grandparents.

A celebration of Michele's life will take place on Friday, December 20, 2024, at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation starting at 10 AM with a service following at 12 PM. Burial will follow at Pittsgrove Baptist Church Cemetery in Daretown, NJ. After the burial the family invites all to the Woodstown Reliance Fire Company to continue to celebrate Michele's life.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Michele's memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, https://fundraising.stjude.org/site/TR/Memorials/Memorials?px=8681815&pg=personal&fr_id=154020©_link_share

Michele's legacy of love, faith, and compassion will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
