Mildred C. Tischler, 96, currently living in Bridgeton but formerly of Elmer and Vineland passed away on March 26, 2016. Born in Dividing Creek, Mildred was the daughter of Ralph & Helen Campbell. Her sisters, June Taylor, Ethel Daugherty, Jane Dimsha and Helen Griner as well as host of other family members all survive her. In addition to her parents, her husband John and three siblings, James Campbell, Calvin Campbell and Ruth Lloyd, predeceased her.

Mildred would often tell you that she had no regrets and enjoyed her life tremendously. She believed with all that was in her that what helped her get through each day was her relationship with God and fostering that relationship by reading her bible daily. Thus, she lived her life accordingly.

“ I want to offer my sincerest condolence to the family and friends of Mildred. Even tho you do not know me I know what the grief and loss of a dear one feels like. I lost my precious husband and the Bible like Mildred gets me thru the day. I would like to share this comforting promise. "He will swallow up death forever "I Isaiah 25:8 " And those sleeping in the grave will awaken to a resurrection.
