“ My sincerest condolences to Milford Zane’s daughter and the Zane family, I am sorry for your loss. I knew Milford as Bob my locksmith, he was a kind man. He spoke with sentiment about his only daughter. I recently needed a locksmith for a friend. When Bob didn’t answer, I later went online to learn of his passing. Milford Zane will be missed by all. My heart goes out to you during this time of sorrow. With prayers and deep sympathy, Lee Ann Bartel

I just found out that Bob passed away , on my birthday last year. My husband and I lived in Glassboro and he was our locksmith for many years. I drove past his old house in Pitman the other day. He was such a nice man. We lost touch when he moved to VA. He will be remembered and I will visit his grave soon. The late Irving Smith and wife Sandra Smith. Glassboro, NJ

Sandra, thank you so very much for your kind words. He loved the people he met through out his career. I too drive by that house often and have great memories of living there. Thank you again!
