Naomi Mae Wood, 87, of Elmer, passed away on September 12, 2016. She was the daughter of the late George and Martha (nee Mickle) Flanagan. Naomi is survived by her son, Joseph D. Wood, Jr. of Vineland; and Janice Wood of Vineland. Along with her parents, she was predeceased by her loving husband of over 50 years, Joseph D. Wood, Sr.; her brothers, Layton and Lawrence Flanagan; and her best friend, Ruth Beyers.

Born and raised in Elmer, Naomi grew up on her family's farm, Flanagan's Dairy. When she was 17, she married the love of her life, Joseph D. Wood and they were together until his passing in November 1989. A true Christian, Naomi and her best friend Ruth Beyers loved to travel to different Baptist churches and participate in their bible studies. Naomi and Joe Jr. were also members of the Christ Community Baptist Tabernacle in Newfield. A homemaker throughout her life, she did work in the kitchen at the Elmer Diner for several years. She was particularly fond of her Aunt Naomi, who she was named after. Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.
