

Olive Smith

November 17, 2015

Olive Smith, 96, of Elmer passed away on November 17, 2015. Born in Elmer, Olive was the daughter of Robert & Anna Gibson Davis. Her daughter, Sandra Hitchner and her husband R. Leland, granddaughter, Lisa Hitchner, a sister-in-law, Nora Davis and a grand-dog, Lucy survives her. In addition to her parents, her husband Frank and five siblings predeceased her, Rhoda Strockbine, Charles Davis, Alice Nelson, Robert Davis and Dorothy Ruhl.

Throughout her ninety-six years, Olive would have many interests and hobbies. However, some of the things she enjoyed the most were the bus trips she would take, feeding the birds in the yard and tending to her flowers. However, her one constant enjoyment was sitting in front of her kitchen window and reading her newspapers daily. Finally, one of the things she would reminisce about over the years was the moving from city to city while Frank was in the military and before he was sent overseas.

Services will be held on Monday, November 23, 2015, at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318, The viewing will begin at 10 AM with the service following at 11 AM. “Sadly, we didn't know of Aunt Olive's passing until after her services, so missed the opportunity to share memories of her in person. We will remember her with love and smiles for her wry sense of humor, unique feisty spirit, and the many outings and events she shared with our family – Brigantine, Lancaster, Cape May, etc., chatting away in the back seat about everything under the sun with her loving sister Alice (our mother and grandmother); sharing family feasts; grumbling at birdseed-thieving squirrels; and the look on her face at her surprise birthday party (when my sister fashioned fondant 'Olives' to decorate her cake). We love and miss you, Aunt Olive, and hope you are taking long walks with your sister Alice, just like the old days. ~ Love, Janet Zabel (niece) & Debbi Zabel (great-niece ❤️❤️❤️🌟
