

Patricia Henwood

January 5, 2008

Patricia Henwood, 64, of Elmer passed away on January 5, 2008 at the Elmer Hospital. Born in Philadelphia, Pat was the daughter of the late Edward, Sr., and Ester Bradley. Pat had moved from Union, NJ to Elmer in 1992. For many years now she has been the owner of Elmer Town Cleaners and prior to purchasing the business she had worked there for several years.

Furthermore, for many years she worked for the Elmer Times, was a member of the Elmer Republican Club and St. Anne's Roman Catholic Church. Prior to moving to Elmer, she and her late Husband, Earl, were owners of a graphic business in Montclair, NJ called "Wood Gra Fics" which they operated for many years together. Pat started working in the newspaper business with the Union Leader, where she started off as a typesetter and quickly rose throughout the ranks. Pat and her husband Earl loved politics and they were always very much involved. She served as a legislative aide to Louis Bassano in Union and one of her fondest memories was the time she attended the Republican National Convention in Detroit for Ronald Reagan. But more important, Pat will be remembered by her family as the "glue" that keep them together and the care that she had for everyone including her animals. She is survived by her sister Sandra Sternberg of AZ., her brothers, Edward, Jr., of Elmer and Thomas D. Bradley of Edison as well as many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Earl and a sister Jacqueline. Services will be held on Wednesday, January 9, 2008 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ. The viewing will begin at 10am with the service following at 11am. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer. www.adamsfuneralhome.org 856-358-3737

“ I'm sorry to hear of Pat's passing. I am a customer of hers from the Town Cleaners. She was always very kind and pleasant to talk to. She will be deeply missed in our little town of Elmer.##imported-begin##Carol Eisenbrey##imported-end##

“ Please accept our deepest sympathies. We knew socially and worked politically with Pat and Earl for many years in Union County and were always amazed at Pat's quiet competence behind the public scene. I'm sure she was just as effective in the Elmer Republican organization. May God bless and keep her in eternal peace and may all her surviving family remember a warm and perky woman who blessed our lives as well, we're sure, of many others.
