

Patrick C. Sassi

July 14, 2011

Patrick C. Sassi, 77, currently living in Vineland with his daughter Loretta, passed away on July 14, 2011. A lifelong resident of Pennsville, Mr. Sassi was the son of Carmine & Antoinette (nee: Racite). He was a member of Sharptown UMC and had retired from Mannington Mills as an operator after many years of service. Mr. Sassi served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, was a farmer, and an avid trapper, trapping both snappers and muskrats.

He is survived by his children, Robert W. and his wife Vanessa of Pennsville, David C. and his wife Constance of Woodstown, Anthony C. and his wife Vickie of Pennsville, Loretta A. Carroll and her husband Blane of Vineland, Susan M. Mahala and her husband David of LAC and Sharon R. Dunkle and her husband George of Millville; a sister, Grace S. Daqui of Carney's Point; two brothers, John D. Sassi of Pennsville and Dominick J. Sassi of Carney's Point, twenty grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. In addition to his parents, his wife Dorothy Mae predeceased him.

Services will be held this Tuesday, July 19, 2011 at the Sharptown UMC. The viewing will begin at 9:30am with the service following at 11am. Interment will take place at Lawnside Cemetery. The family has suggested that donations be made to the American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 11454, Alexandria, VA, 22312. www.adamsfuneralhome.org