“ Terry, I am saddened by your loss. I'm sure you are heartbroken. Patsy will remain in your heart and thoughts every day. You will miss her more than you can imagine. There will be many tears. "You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in your bottle. Are they not in your book?"

The Lord joined you and Patsy together. Now you have been ripped in half and exposed. It is excruciating. That is normal, even for Christians who grieve with hope. Trust in the Lord knowing that you will see Patsy again.

Our God sees and hears your cries. "Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows;" You are not alone. The Lord is walking beside you and will not leave you nor forsake you. "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you." "Fear not, for I am with you;"

I will keep you in prayer in the many months to come.

“ We loved Pat from the first time we were blessed to meet her almost 40 years ago. We will be praying for you all and continue to do so over the coming year. Our prayer will also be for you to sense a glimmer of the love, joy and peace that Pat now knows, praising her Saviour all the day long.

“ So sorry for your loss. Pat helped me learn the ropes when I took the position of “cafeteria lady” at Monroeville school. She was strong in her Christian walk and I know one day we will see each other again.
