

Quinton Reeves Hackett

September 11, 2010

Quinton Reeves Hackett, 97, of Daretown passed away on September 11, 2010 while living at Merion Gardens in Carney's Point. Born and raised in Monroeville, Mr. Hackett was the son of Chester W. & Ethel (nee: Smith) E. Hackett. Self employed, Mr. Hackett worked on the family farm his entire life. He was a life member of the Elmer Grange #29, the Odd Fellows in Pittsgrove, the Pole Tavern Gun Club, South Millville Gun Club and the Quinton Sportsman Club. An avid hunter, he enjoyed his hunting trips with his friends, David England and Warren Foster, to Canada, Nova Scotia, Montana and Wyoming.

He is survived by his daughters, Sandra Dorrell of Alloway, Eileen Blum and her husband Richard of Daretown and Brenda Hall and her husband John of Woodstown, grandchildren, Gregory W. Dorrell (Claudette), Cheri Dorrell Stow, Lianne Denise Dorrell, Scott Brian Blum, Michael Alan Blum (Linda) and Jill Deneene Hall (Aric), great grandchildren, Cheri Lynn Stow, Melissa Sue Stow, Courtney Marie Blum, Andrew Reeves Hall Beals and Sarah Lillian Hall Beals and great great grandchildren, Javier Gonzalez, Jr. and Kaylee Alyssa Gonzalez. His wife, Mildred Lillian (nee: Schaeffer) predeceased him.

A Graveside Service will be held on Thursday, September 16, 2010 at 2:30pm at the Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer. www.adamsfuneralhome.org