

Ralph L. Salisbury

April 1, 2019

Ralph L. Salisbury, age 93, lifelong resident of Elmer, NJ, passed away on April 1, 2019 while at Pitman Manor Nursing Home. Ralph was a veteran of the United States Army, serving in Korea. Once he returned from Korea, he continued to work in the family painting/ wallpapering business, beautifying many of the homes in the Elmer area. Ralph and his best friend, Evelyn Coats Salisbury were married for 62 years, and together they loved and cared for many animals, and were avid supporters of numerous animal rescue organizations. Ralph was predeceased by his wife Evelyn six years. He will be laid to rest at the Finn's Point National Veterans Cemetery next to his wife.

“ Sorry to hear about Ralph. I remember him walking back and forth across Church Street and occasionally I had the opportunity to bring him a plate of food from a church dinner.

*Dave,
A few years before Ralph's death, I asked him if I could have his "day old Newspapers" ... he would walk it over every day, and throw it onto our porch. If the paper didn't show one day, I would know to go over and check up on Ralph, also I thought it would help keep him moving! I really appreciated his diligence to this small act of kindness.*
