“ Our family moved out of NJ in 2013, so I we were very sad to hear about Regina. She was such a nice person as you all know. Remembering to parties at Millie's and at my house when Doug and Millie decided to go back home to Arvada Co. The love she and George had for their family and for their God was inspiring. We will miss her but can't wait to see her when we all get together again. The Harris family. Bud, Brenda, Melody, Budd, Jake Nd Nancie.

“ I worked with Regina at SCC for many years and she was the nicest person to work with. She was such a help to all and she loved her family. She would talk of her husband, George, and children and grandchildren often. I will miss her greatly and pray for all of you as you adjust to your loss. Sharon Stout

“ The death of Mrs. Regina Marie Strand is the most devastating experiences a family can face. At times, the loss may seem unbearable. Please know that there are those who care and more importantly Psalm 34:18 tells us that "God is near to those that are broken at heart. Jehovah is the God of all comfort. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ My deepest sorrow to learn of Regina's passing. I worked with her at SCC for years and served with her on the SCC Alumni Association. Words aren't enough to express what an amazing woman she was. I will be praying for your family. BJ Ayars.

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.
