“ Dick leaves this world with the knowledge that he contributed 3 beautiful children and so many happy grandchildren and great-grandchildren. As a tribute to Dick, my brother Bob and I have provided a donation to the Tri-Cities Chaplaincy Hospice. May you rest in peace knowing that your legacy is now part of a great service facility and organization.

God Bless,

“ Dick has left a legacy in his children and their children... As their cousin I hope they know how much they are love and appreciated. It is our hope they find peace, because their dad has found peace. Thank you Dick for this legacy that will continue to live.
