December 23, 2021

Richard N. Lieggi, 61, of West Deptford, NJ passed away on December 23, 2021. Born in Camden, he was the son of the late Carlo C. Lieggi, Sr. and Mable G. Fox and attended Paulsboro High School. Richard most recently worked as a shipper for American Autowire in Bellmawr, NJ. Richard enjoyed riding his Harley, going to see local bands, bowling, golfing, going to barbecues and car shows; and he truly loved the time that he spent with his granddaughter Emma and watching "Baby Shark" with her.

Richard is survived by his loving wife of 31 years, Janet (Wildermuth) Lieggi; his daughters Gabi Taylor and her husband Timothy of Edgewood, MD and Kimberly Johnston of Franklinville and her 3 children; his grandchildren Emma and Evelyn; his sisters Toni Hemphill and her husband Dave of Mantua and Sarah Lieggi of Paulsboro; and many nieces and nephews. Richard's newest granddaughter, Evelyn Taylor (born to Gabi and Tim Taylor) was born just a few hours before Richard passed on the 23rd, giving her a guardian angel for life. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brothers Carlo Lieggi Jr. and Andrew Lieggi.

“ Richard was my nephew, his Father was my brother Carl. I left New Jersey many years ago. But have memories of Richard as a young man. He was a good kid as all Carl's kids were. Fond memories. My prayers are with his family. Janet please accept my condolences. Love and prayers sent to you. May Richard Rest in Peace.
