

Richard E Morley

January 30, 2012

Hard working, entrepreneur and someone who loved his family very much. Richard E. Morley, 92, of Pittsgrove passed away on January 30, 2012. The owner and operator of Morley Speed Center in Pitman, Mr. Morley retired in 2007. Prior to opening the shop with his sons, he had owned several gas stations throughout South Jersey. Although he was always working, he always took the time to help his boys get their race cars ready and then spent many weekends with them at the race track. It was a time for everyone to enjoy their hard work, have fun and bond together. His love for racing extended to Nascar, especially to collecting and selling its memorabilia. He also enjoyed many summers in Avalon, NJ with is family. His dedication to family, friends and country was exemplified by his service in the US Army during the Second World War.

He is survived by his sons, Richard E. Morley II of Upper Pittsgrove, Dwight Morley of Pitman, and Darryl Morley and his wife Karen of Maryland; and a sister Ethel Dodge as well as four grandchildren, Derek, Kyle and his wife Amy, Tyler, Brynn, and one great grandchild, Annalise. He was predeceased by his parents, the Rev. George R. & Ethel Morley and a brother Curtis Morley

A graveside service will be held this Saturday, February 4, 2012 at 11 AM at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Upper Pittsgrove.www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ I've lost long time good friend. I was with Dick almost every weekday and enjoyed him immensely. His passing will surely leave a big void in my world. I wish him a great journey now and know he is rid of any discomfort. Bill Gould
